From The Governor

The northern winter is here with its full arctic temperatures. Why not come out to the lodge and enjoy the heat, amazing dinners, friends and fellowship. This past month we had a chicken buffet, the delizioso tasting Italian night, our lodges 29th anniversary party, and free dinner cooked by the Wisconsin State Board earned by our members during a membership campaign. We are in the running to win this free dinner again this quarter so keep up the great job signing those members. Upcoming events include the Yooper outhouse races, a chicken buffet, meatloaf dinner, liver and onions dinner, Sweethearts dinner, the perch and smelt fish fries held during Lent, and the Radar Run. Come out for a good time and support these events that help donate proceeds to Mooseheart, Moosehaven, and local charities. There is something going on every Saturday for the next two months. This is the time of year to consider being a member of the board of officers. You must fill out the form in the newsletter and turn it in to any member of the board before the dead line for consideration and the voting takes place. This is a great opportunity to become part of the decision making board that has the best interest of the lodge in mind to be sustainable, a fun place to go with friends and family for planned activities, and great food. You will also learn more about the rules/regulations that each lodge has to follow passed down to us by Moose International. The mid-year Wisconsin State Moose Association convention will take place in March at the Radisson in Green Bay. Forms are available now on the state web site. Make your reservation early and we also have some rooms reserved. See the Administrator for availability. Lodge Leadership, 2-HOTT, and MLEC training will be offered. Our Regional manager Gordie Daily has accepted a new roll within the Moose Organization. Thank you Gordie for all that you have done for our association. We welcome in new Reginal Manager Darrell O'Brien.

Fraternally Yours,

Brad Boivin, Governor
